

Sedgwick acquires Nordic Loss Adjusting

LONDON, 6 August 2019 – Sedgwick, a leading global provider of technology-enabled risk, benefits and integrated business solutions, has acquired Nordic Loss Adjusting AB and related entities in order to strengthen its presence in the Nordics.

Nordic Loss Adjusting is an independent provider of claims handling, loss adjusting and third-party administration services in the Nordics. Its clients are insurers and captives in local Nordic and international markets. NLA handles property, liability, motor, bodily injury and medical expense insurance claims for consumer and commercial products. Founded in 2010, NLA has offices in Gothenburg, Stockholm and Oslo (Asker).

Sedgwick and NLA have highly complementary capabilities, geographic footprints and approaches to customer service in the region. Bringing the NLA business under the Sedgwick umbrella will enable the company to elevate service delivery in the Nordic market and establish a platform for continued growth in Europe and around the world.

“NLA’s strong presence in Sweden and Norway positions us well to expand Sedgwick’s market share in the Nordics,” said Ian V. Mures, Sedgwick CEO of international operations. “Their management team and talented colleagues are highly regarded in the industry and have longstanding working relationships with Sedgwick leaders in the region. Our organizational cultures are nicely aligned for potential strategic hires, especially in Norway. We look forward to adding yet more TPA capabilities in this market.”

Anders Dahlström, cofounder of NLA and CEO for Sweden, said: “Since our inception, NLA has focused on building a vast network of partners throughout the Nordic region to deliver specialized expertise and meet clients’ needs whenever a loss occurs. NLA and Sedgwick share strong values that promote outstanding customer care and claims-handling quality. Joining forces with Sedgwick will attract valuable new business, customers and partners for us in this region.”

Dan Sivertsen, NLA’s CEO for Norway, added: “This deal is a unique opportunity for us to scale and expand our range of services in the Norwegian market. It will also allow us to better serve our insurance customers, who are increasingly demanding a wider range of specialized expertise. Together with Sedgwick, we will provide customers with even greater value.”

Muess shared, “the combined Sedgwick operation in Sweden will be managed by Anders Dahlstrom, CEO of Sweden and Claes Frick, Deputy CEO of Sweden. The combined Sedgwick operation in Norway will be managed by Dan Sivertsen, CEO of Norway and Philip Hayes, COO of Norway. Christian Leif Hansen will manage the combined teams as CEO, Nordics.”

About Sedgwick

Sedgwick is a leading global provider of technology-enabled risk, benefits and integrated business solutions. We provide a broad range of resources tailored to our clients’ specific needs in casualty, property, marine, benefits and other lines. At Sedgwick, caring counts[®]; through the dedication and expertise of more than 21,000 colleagues across 65 countries, the company takes care of people and organizations by mitigating and reducing risks and losses, promoting health and productivity, protecting brand reputations, and containing costs that can impact the bottom line. Sedgwick’s majority shareholder is The Carlyle Group; Stone Point Capital LLC, La Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec (CDPQ) and other management investors are minority shareholders. For more, see www.sedgwick.com.

###

Media contacts:

Santi Dharmawan, FWD | +44 (0)20 7280 0644 | sedgwick@fwdconsulting.co.uk

Judy Molnar, VP, public relations | +1-813-215-9358 | judy.molnar@sedgwick.com

